

A Whole-Child Lens

Use these guiding questions to reflect on initiatives, systems, structures and practices in your work.

How do they address the needs of the whole learner?

Whole-Child Purpose

In what ways is this work focused on students' healthy development, learning and thriving?

Relationships

In what ways is this work fostering trust, connection and belonging?

Environments

In what ways is this work creating spaces that are physically, emotionally and identity safe, supportive and inclusive?

Learning Experiences

In what ways is this work providing meaningful, engaging and challenging learning experiences?

Skills, Habits, and Mindsets

In what ways is this work developing students' social, emotional and cognitive skills, habits and mindsets?

Integrated Supports

In what ways is this work integrating school and community resources to address students' strengths and needs?

Strengthening Coherence Across Initiatives:
A Whole-Child Lens

Executive Summary | TK-12 Report

Center for Whole-Child Education

ASU Mary Lou Fulton
Teachers College
Arizona State University